

I don't want banks or anyone else calling to sell me something. If I want to purchase items or services, I'LL do the calling. By allowing banks to call, you are giving the criminal element an opening to legally exploit the elderly and uninformed. Please change the national list to match Wisconsin's not the other way around.